Rolston Hogstrom Inc. Announces the Promotion of Jack Daniels to President of the Construction/Industrial Division

LIBERTYVILLE, IL– Rolston Hogstrom (RH) Inc. is honored to announce the promotion of Jack Daniels to President of the Construction/Industrial Division. Daniels has been an integral part of RH Inc. for more than 40 years, contributing his deep expertise, leadership and commitment across multiple facets of the company.

For the past 24 years, he has worked in partnership with Chris Hogstrom as co-owners, and together guided the company through significant growth and expansion.

In his new role, Daniels will oversee all operations, strategic initiatives and client relations within the Construction/Industrial Division, continuing to strengthen RH Inc.'s reputation for quality, integrity and innovation in the industry.

Chris Hogstrom will continue to serve as Chief Executive Officer, focusing his leadership on the NTEA/Fleet Division and the broader portfolio of manufacturing partnerships within RH Inc..

“Jack’s leadership and dedication have been foundational to our success,” says Hogstrom, “his deep understanding of our business, (of) our people and our values is what makes him the ideal person to lead the Construction/Industrial Division into the next era of growth.”

Rolston Hogstrom Inc. looks forward to continued success under Jack Daniels’ leadership, as they remain committed to delivering exceptional values and services to its manufacturing, distribution and end-user partners.
